

Recreational fishing licences

Information and application form

Licences are required for:

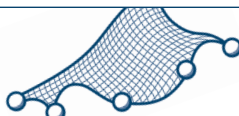

Recreational fishing
from boat (Statewide)
$40

South-west
freshwater angling
$50

Net fishing
(haul, set and throw)
$50

Rock lobster
$50

Abalone
$50

Marron
$50

Fishing licences

In WA, licences are required for:

- use of a powered boat to fish or to transport your catch or fishing gear to or from a land-based fishing location (Recreational Fishing from Boat Licence – RFBL)
- rock lobster
- abalone
- marron
- South-west (south of 29°S) freshwater angling
- net fishing (set, haul and throw nets).

Further information about the licensed recreational fisheries listed above is available from select DPIRD offices or at fish.wa.gov.au/guide.

Note: Fishing licences issued in other states are not valid in WA.

Your fees help fishing

All revenue from recreational fishing licences is placed in a recreational fishing fund and reinvested in projects that directly benefit recreational fishing in Western Australia.

Concessions

You only pay half the fee if:

- (a) you are under the age of 16 years*.
- (b) you hold a Seniors Card issued by the Office of Seniors Interests.
- (c) you receive:
  - (i) an age, disability support or widows pension or allowance under the Social Security Act 1991 of the Commonwealth.
  - (ii) a pension under the Coal Industry Superannuation Act 1989.
  - (iii) a pension as a widow of a member of the forces, a service pension or the special rate of pension as a person who is totally and permanently incapacitated, under the Veterans Entitlements Act 1986 of the Commonwealth.
- (d) you are:
  - (i) the spouse, de facto partner, widow or widower of a person referred to in paragraph (c), or if you were the de facto partner of a person referred to in paragraph (c) immediately before their death.

Applying for and renewing licences

You can apply for or renew your fishing licence:

- online at fish.wa.gov.au – click on the ‘Fishing licence’ button, follow the instructions and you will be redirected to DoTDirect.
- in person at any of our offices listed in this guide.
- by mail.

You will receive your licence card in the mail. You may fish while waiting for your card to arrive provided you can produce the receipt. If you have been convicted of a fisheries offence, or had a recreational fishing licence cancelled or not renewed, or are not in possession of the receipt when fishing, you cannot use your receipt to fish.

Existing licence holders will be sent an application for renewal before their current licence expires.

Licences cover a 12-month period from the date of issue. If you lose your licence and need a replacement, phone or attend your nearest DPIRD licensing office – details are on the back of this form. A fee may apply.

Recreational fishing by Aboriginal people

If you are Aboriginal, you do not need a recreational fishing licence. This applies when you take fish from any waters in accordance with continuing Aboriginal tradition and the fish are taken only for you or your family to eat and not for a commercial purpose.

To identify gear, such as nets or rock lobster pots, use the letter ‘A’ followed by the day, month and year of your birth (e.g. if born on 21 May 1961, your gear identification number is A21/5/61).

You may choose to take out a fishing licence, in which case normal fees will apply.

Fishing rules and information

You must produce your licence when requested to by a Fisheries Officer. Breaking the fishing rules may result in you being issued an infringement notice or being prosecuted in court. Fines may be as high as $400,000 and up to 10 times the dollar value of the species.

Information and guides covering rules and regulations for licensed fisheries are available from our website and on the Recfishwest app. For full details of legislation contact one of our offices or visit fish.wa.gov.au/legislation.

Printed information is current at the date of printing but may be subject to change.
